REPORT

MURSHIDABAD ADARSHA MAHAVIDYALAYA

Department Of Bengali

Departmental Seminar (29.11.2019 – 30.11.2019)

Murshidabad Adarsh Mahavidyalaya, Head of Bengali Department, Mr. Partha Das met his fellow teachers in a departmental meeting on 15.11.2019. In that meeting, a proposal for a departmental two-day (29/11/2019 and 30/11/2019) topic-based discussion cycle for upgradation of students of the department (first and third semester) was accepted. "Bangla Sahityer Chalchitro" was fixed as the subject of discussion. It was decided in the meeting that Mr. Basab Ghosh, T.I.C of the college will preside over the program, Prof. Partha Das, who will set the tone for the discussion cycle. Prof. Prosenjit Dey and Prof. Tarun Samui will delivered their speech on the topic and Prof. Pranati Chattopadhyay will conduct the program. It was also decided that the departmental teachers should be active in the matter so that each of the students should give their speech on the given topic on two specific days. On the particular day (29/11/2019) from the morning, the room number 3 of the college was decorated with the magic of the handiwork of the students of the department. At 11 am, the teacher-in-charge of the college was welcomed on the stage which was decorated with garlands, alpans, departmental festoons. T.I.C and all teachers are welcomed by the students. The sacred flame of the lamp was then lit in the hands of the Teacher-in-Charge with the assistance of the departmental teachers. And in keeping with the environment, the students of the department sang the song of light 'Anandaloke Mangalaloke Viraj Satya Sundar'. The two-day discussion cycle was auspicious. Teacher-in-Charge and Professor of Bengali Department Mr. Basab Ghosh Mahashaya very briefly explained the function of this discussion cycle and concluded his speech by wishing the program success. After that, the anchor Prof. Pranati Chattopadhyaya called the teacher speakers according to his schedule. Prof. Prosenjit Dey and Prof. Tarun Samui Mahashaya delivered their well-thought-out and succinct speeches on the topic of "Bangla Sahityer Chalchitro" in a simple yet melodious language. Then the turn of the students to speak on the subject began. On the first day 55 and on the second day 77 i.e. a total of 132 students presented their speech enthusiastically. Most of these students get a taste of novelty by participating in such a discussion cycle for the first time. At the beginning of the second day of the seminar Prof. Partha Das Mahashaya gave a brief presentation of his views on the topic and after that it was again the turn of the students to speak. It may be noted that Prof. Tarun Samui and Prof. Prosenjit Dey graced the seat of the judges as per the earlier decision of identifying and awarding the best three speakers to motivate the students. In their collective decision, Monalisa Ghosh (3rd sem.) won the first place, Abu Sufian (3rd sem.) won the second place and Ambika Mandal (1st

Departmental Seminar (23.05.2022 & 24.05.2022)

Mrs. Mousumi Singh, Head of the Department of Bengali at Murshidabad Adarsha Mahavidyalaya, held a departmental meeting on ---- with fellow teachers. In the meeting, a proposal was taken for a departmental two-day seminar (23/5/2022 and 24/5/2022) for the betterment of the students of the department. At the same meeting, it was decided that Associate Professor of Berhampur Girls' College, Madhu Mitra would be the chief guest and the main speaker on the first day of the seminar and Professor Pranati Chattopadhyay would conduct the program. From the morning of the specified day (23/5/2022), room 3 of the college was decorated with the magic of the handiwork of the students of the department. On the stage of the room decorated with flower garlands, alpina, departmental festoon, at 11 am, the teacher-in-charge of the college, the chief guest, departmental teachers were welcomed by the students with sandalwood tika on their foreheads and wreaths in their hands. The sacred flame of the lamp was then lit by the teacher-in-charge and departmental teachers. And the students sang along with it. A good start to the two-day conference. Shri Basab Ghosh, Teacher-in-Charge and Professor of the Department of Bengali, very briefly explained the effectiveness of this national seminar and concluded by wishing the event a success. Thereafter, the moderator requested Mitra ji to present his point of view. The chief guest and the guest of honour, Mitra gave a long speech on the topic 'Women in Medieval Bengali Literature' in a simple yet eloquent language. At the end of his speech, the students applauded. They liked the conversation. Professor Tarun Samui He presented his speech in front of the students in his own style. Then the students began to talk about the topic. On the first day, 50 students and on the second day, 63 students enthusiastically presented their views. Most of these students got a taste of novelty by participating in this national seminar for the first time. At the beginning of the second day's seminar, Prof. Partha Das and Prof. Prasenjit Dey gave their views on the topic in brief and then it was the turn of the students to speak again. It may be mentioned that Prof. Partha Das, Prof. Tarun Samui and Prof. Prasenjit Dey graced the judges seat as per the earlier decision to identify and award the best three speakers to encourage the students. Hasin Jahanara Khatun (2nd sem) and Rokia Zaman Sarmin (4th sem) won the joint first place in this discussion cycle by their joint decision; Sohini Alam (4th sem) and Ambika Mondal (6th sem) came second in pairs and Kaushik Mondal (2nd sem) and Alkuma Khatun (4th sem) came in pairs. They were awarded by the department. All the participating students were
