All the students were directed to assemble at the college campus on just time, before 6pm. Then our bus started for the place destined. We reach there at 8pm and took our break fast there. After the break fast students started to visit one by one all the historic places. Then at 2pm we had our lunch and after the lunch theyone more went to vist those remaining places and finally at pm we took our evening tea and snax. After taking a break we started our homeward journey. We reached home safely at 8pm.

Knowing the Place Historically

In 1704, when Murshid Quli Khan was Divan, he shifted his headquarters from Dhaka to Maksudabad and renamed it Murshidabad. In 1717, when Murshid Quli Khan became Subahdar, he made Murshidabad the capital of Subah Bangla (then Bengal, Bihar and Odisha).

After the defeat of Siraj ud-Daulah in the Battle of Plassey by the forces of the British East India Company, in 1757, Mir Jafar became a puppet ruler. In 1773, the East India Company established a capital in Calcutta and appointed its first Governor-General, Warren Hastings, and became directly involved in governance.

Importance & Outcome of the Study Tour:

As we are the students of literature, it was a great opportunity for the students to physically gather knowledge on all those historic places of Lalbagh. The place really enriches the experience of our students, they learnt how to handle the pressure of journeying to an unknown place in an unknown situation. A few of our students even never step out of their home so it was a wonderful opportunity for them to experience a situation outside of their comfort zone. Really the place was worth remembering for the students of literature. The Hazarduway palace, motijhil park, kathgola bagan etc are really beautiful places to observe. It teaches us what it is to experience knowledge in direct contact with historical places. The study tour, in a single word, was of huge success.
