About Murshidabad Adarsha Mahavidyalaya

In the year of 1977 the Government of West Bengal decided to establish 24 new colleges in various places of West Bengal to spread the light of higher education throughout the Bengal territory. The present college - Murshidabad Adarsha Mahavidyalaya is one output of that scheme. During 1970s there were only few colleges located in and around the Murshidabad city and the rest of the areas of the district remained detached from the centre of higher education. In case of exceptional and ambitious students, it was too tough to approach the existing colleges for pursuing higher studies. Keeping this acute problem in mind, some of the contemporary intellectuals of Islampur started to sort it out. Mr. Hemendra Narayan Chaudhary, a teacher of Katlamari High School, took the first initiative to open a college which may cover the areas between the city of Berhampore and Bangladesh Border (Jalangi). However, some reason his plan failed.

At the beginning of 1980s, a serious attempt was made in this direction by some local philanthropists like Sri. Tapan Kumar Hore (teacher), Sri. Puri Lal Biswas (businessman), Sri. Satish Charan Dey

(businessman), Sri. Kartrik Dutta, Sri (businessman), Solamen Hoque (teacher), Sri. Durgaprasad Mahashawari (businessman), Sri. Rabindranath Raksit (businessman), Dibakar Dutta (businessman) and others. They under the aegis of MLA Smt. Chaya Ghosh began to collect money and assets for a land where the college has been proposed to be established. Initially, the advocates of the movement faced huge setback in finding the land. At that time, Upendra Smriti Seba Mandir of Purilal Biswas provided the place for the early academic excursion of the college. In November of 1981 the college began its journey formally. There were four temporary class rooms in the Seba Mandir, and several teachers of nearby High Schools voluntarily taught the students for four years without remuneration. The teachers were Kamalendu Bhattacharyya, Amulya Kumar Sarkar, Nripendranath Kundu, Anowar Hossain and Dilip Chakraborty. In the meanwhile a helping hand was extended by the Ministry of Higher Education headed by Sri Shombhu Ghosh for the university affiliation. Fortunately, the college got the university recognition from the University of Calcutta in 1981. Finally in 1985 a plot of six bighas was obtained from Sri Durgapada Dutta and Dhananjoy Dutta in exchange for money. Basically the amount was collected from the various organizations and individuals. A lump sum was donated by the 'Union no. 4 Company of Multipurpose Society' (Chak Islampur), 'Chandrakanta Lalit Mohan Resham Khadi' (Chak Islampur), Rural Industry Association, Chak Weaker's Association, Upenda Smriti, Chack Bayan Shilpi Samiti and others. Afterward, MLA of Jalangi, Atahar Rahaman extended another helping hand for the construction of building at the college land.

Vision

Education is the initiation of self-revelation. It gives scope for creativity and acts as a bridge between the external world around us and inner world we carry within our body, mind and soul. The 'flying bird' is the symbol of hope. As the wings of higher education begin to take off, the span of human life expands and approaches the 'ripe corn' of knowledge to lead a fresh life. The primary objective of Murshidabad Adarsha Mahavidyalaya is to spread the light of quality education among the marginalized section of Islampur, Raninagar, Domkal and Daulatabad blocks. This institution since its inception (1981) has mainly been serving the rural learners who come from various remote and underdeveloped areas. About ninety-five percent students belong to lower class, especially the students from the Scheduled Castes and Other Backward Classes including minorities (mainly Muslims). Around two-thousand students of different rank get enrolled each year in the college. The vast departmental wings of Arts and Humanities of the College provide ample scope to the students to integrate the needs of individual as well as society in order to create new value-based youths. In this way, our college aims to be the beacon of hope for the marginal areas that will shower the light of education amongst all strata of society. Thus let us, pierce the dark veil of ignorance and remove illiteracy and poverty and truly prove to be a vehicle of modernization and development

- To promote higher education across the eastern part of the Murshidabad district.
